

*Thank you for considering
The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art to host your event!*

We're proud to be recognized nationally and internationally as one of America's finest art museums and the most distinguished event venue in Kansas City. As a non profit 501(c)(3), hosting an event here is a unique way to support our mission and keep general admission free for everyone.

Wedding Ceremonies

Host your wedding at the most distinguished venue in the city surrounded by exquisite works of art.

events@nelson-atkins.org | 816.751.1234

Kirkwood Hall

As the ceremonial heart of the Nelson-Atkins, weddings and receptions are typically hosted in Kirkwood Hall, a grand and beautiful space flanked by twelve massive columns of black and white marble. This vast room is approximately forty feet high with limestone walls adorned with original tapestries from the museum's superior collection.

Considerations

Wedding ceremonies are only available when renting the museum for a wedding reception as well.

- The Wedding Ceremony fee is $3,500.
- The following is included in the ceremony fee:
 - Rental space on the West Terrace, Tapis Vert, or Kirkwood Hall.
 - Rental for post ceremony gathering on either the East Sculpture Terrace, or Bloch Lobby. Additional rental fees will apply if using Rozzelle Court.
 - Museum staff services
 - Two staging areas
- Not included in the ceremony fee:
 - Décor and specialty items
 - Chairs for the ceremony
 - Musicians
 - Tenting; circumstantial based on location, size, and museum operations
 - Reception costs (including venue rental, food & beverage, and all other associated expenses)
- Ceremonies and receptions are hosted on Saturdays after 6 p.m. Other requests are circumstantial.
- We recommend the bridal party dress off site, as museum staging areas do not have restrooms, mirrors, etc.
- A Wedding Coordinator is strongly recommended and a day of contact who is not part of the wedding party to manage the details on the day of your event.

Wedding Receptions

Celebrating in the iconic Nelson-Atkins Building or the modern Bloch Building will inspire awe and elegance on your special day.
