

Andover 13 June 1855

Dearest Sister

Your kind note is to hand this day and I shall with promptitude attend your summons into Essex (D V) when it appoints a time as it is my duty to serve our kind Uncle at any time. Never to perceive I so indifferently an account of his health which I sincerely hope may be improved on my arrival. Have sent you a paper, among the advertisements you will observe advertisement of sale of Mrs Langstaff's Furniture I purchase nothing as I intend to hire at present.

With kind regards to all, believe me as ever,

Your affectionate Brother
Geo. Dazly
