Dear Sir

Calling yesterday upon Mrs Fuller, he kindly presented your most valuable and a portrait of My late dear Father. spontaneous Gift, to me of intrinsic worth, not having a similar one in my possession decidedly a very correct and pleasing representation.
I trust to be permitted to express my sincere thanks for all favors bestowed & to heartily wish a continuation of health and happiness for many years

Believe me
Brookstreet My dear Sir
Dec 13th 1853 Yours Sincerely
